

Places of Gathering and Refuge for Latter-day Saints in Asia and the Pacific

*2025 Church History in the Pacific and Asia Conference
February 21-22, 2025, Brigham Young University-Hawaii*

Call for Proposals:

The Faculty of Religious Education and the Faculty of Culture, Language & Performing Arts at Brigham Young University-Hawaii announce the 2025 Church History in the Pacific & Asia Conference. The Conference will be held February 21-22, 2025, on the BYU-Hawaii Campus in Laie, Hawaii.

By centering on the theme, “Places of Gathering and Refuge for Latter-day Saints in Asia and the Pacific”, we seek presentations that will highlight spaces, locations, venues, or events that have been meaningful or historically significant sites of gathering and/or refuge for Latter-day Saints in Asia or the Pacific.

We invite scholars and amateur historians alike to submit presentation proposals specifically addressing the conference theme. Proposals should consist of a brief abstract (no more than 500 words) on your proposed topic and a current CV or brief description of experience (50-75 words) outlining your background, preparation/research, or qualifications to address the proposed topic.

Proposals should be submitted at the following link:

Proposal submissions are due: October 1, 2024

Notification of acceptance will be given by: November 1, 2024

Please send any inquiries to ‘Alisi Langi, alangi@byuh.edu

We look forward to your participation at this event!

With Aloha,
